Basketball season is in full swing! Our teams will play two nights a week, and they only have three home games this season. Keep working hard, Panthers!

Fletcher's Photos 📸 Handicapped Parking Spot Awareness

Have you ever thought about the importance of handicapped parking spots? They help Fletcher, and our other friends, get closer to where they need to be. Those diagonal lines in the access aisle are just as important as the spot marked with the International Symbol of Access (the wheelchair symbol), because that's where the ramp comes down so that our friends can get loaded into the vehicle. So, please educate others—don't park in handicapped spots or the loading area!
